Notice of Final Proof.

Land Office at St. Cloud, Minn.,

April 1st, 1891.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the judge, or in his absence the Clerk of District Court, at Brainerd, Minn., on May 8th, 1891, viz:

JAMES SORREN,

H. E. No. 1294, for the S. W. 1/4, and Lots 1, 2 and 3, Sec. 2, Twp. 124, R. 28.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon said section, to wit:

Alfred D. Phelps, William W.

Barnes, Neil Kennedy, all of Brainerd, Minn.,

A. BARTO, Register.

The figure 9 in our dates will make a long story.

So man or woman now living will ever date a document without using the figure 9. It stands in the third place in 1890, where it will remain ten years and then move up to second place in 1900, where it will rest for one hundred years.

There is another "9" which has also come to stay.

It is unlike the figure 9 in our dates in the respect that it has already moved up to first place, where it will permanently remain. It is called the "No. 9"

High Arm Washer & Wilson Sewing Machine.

The "No. 9" was endorsed for first place by the experts of Europe at the Paris Exposition of 1889, where, after a severe contest with the leading machines of the world, it was awarded the grand

Grand Prize for family sewing machines, and was also an entirely new machine, and the Grand Prize at Paris was awarded it as the grand advantage in sewing machine mechanism of the age. Those who buy it can rest assured, therefore, of having the very latest and best.

INGERSOLL & WIELAND, Publishers.
RAINERD, MINNESOTA.
Mr. HOWELL'S new prepares his matter for the press on a typewriter. He says the click of the instrument sets his thoughts in motion. Wonder if it will ever put his thoughts on to a plot for any of his novels.

VERMONT's state missionary society has employed two of Evangelist Moody's pretty girl graduates to do missionary work in Vermont and they have begun their labors at Eden. They appear to have the right notion of beginning at the beginning.

The stories that another Indian war is impending must not be given too much credit. The Indians may be dissatisfied and disposed to go on the war path now that the grass is soon to get green, but their experiences on the war path are not likely to be lost on the wiser bucks and squaws.

A WHITE man in Georgia, charged with criminal assault upon a mulatto girl, has been found guilty and sentenced to be hanged. This is the first instance of the kind on record and is an encouraging sign that justice is beginning to be impartially administered in the South regardless of race.

CREMATION is taking a great boom in Boston. The furnaces, however, must be heated something hotter than the "sacred fire" of Ilion or the salad oil of Howells. The effort to take poems by using Ella Wheeler Wilcox's "Poems of Passion" is, however, an experiment they might easily try.

THE "Mafia" was originally a vigilance committee organized to "secure" better administration of justice. It is imported from Sicily, but only after it was made there on the exact model of a native American Bald Knob society of "Regulators." It is the White-Cap league with a more musical name and in the last stage of its progress.

A CURRENT paragraph is to this effect: "Henry Irving has been elected to the Marlborough Club. This is a high honor, for the Prince of Wales does not allow any one to join that institution whom he does not wish to number among his intimates." There may, however, be those who will be overbalanced or dazzled by a sense of the exaltedness of the honor which Mr. Irving has received.

A PITTSBURGH man, according to a dazzling dispatch, has just discovered that a curious piece of stone he has had in his possession for twenty years contains diamonds worth $1,400,000. If this Pittsburgh man is constructed on the ordinary plan it is probable that, once the first glow of the discovery dies away, he will never be able to forgive himself for recklessly losing twenty years' interest on $1,400,000.

THE Rothschilds make the amount of their wealth a sacred family secret; and keep it religiously to themselves. One of their mottoes severely observed is, "A man will not tell what he has in the pocket." This would indicate that the great financial family's knowledge of man was, in one respect at least, seriously defective. They must during their long career, have had wonderful escapes from both exaggeration and depreciation of their wealth.

EDMOND SLATER, manager of the Casino at Monte Carlo, has turned over to the police of Paris a batch of telegrams from prominent Parisian journalists, including a member of the Chamber of Deputies, which reveal a huge blackmailing scheme which has been carried on for years. The telegrams demand money else horrible tales of suicides at Monte Carlo will be published. The good people of this country have probably had their sickening hearts wrung over many a sickening story of suicides at Monte Carlo, but this was concocted in the mind of some blackmailing Parisian journalist.

THE oldest white man, probably, in the United States whose age can be clearly authenticated, is Eli Gray, who resides at Roxbury, Delaware county, N. Y. The records in the town clerk's office at Weston, Fairfield county, Conn., attest the fact that Mr. Gray was born in that town on Dec. 16, 1785, and while yet a youth removed to New York State. Jay Gould's father was the first male child born in the town of Roxbury. Mr. Gray says he remembers the date of the occurrence, Oct. 3, 1792, and he was intimate with the family until past middle age. Mr. Gray's mother, as is also shown by the town records of Weston, lived to be 120 years old. Mr. Gray lives in a little hut near Roxbury and though failing mentally and physically, can still give many reminiscences of olden times.

Are You Right or Left Handed?

Theories as to the origin and cause of right-handedness may be divided as follows: According to one class of theories it rests on an anatomical basis, and depends on a physical cause, which exerts its influence in every one of us. According to another class, man originally had no preference for either hand, but became right-handed by conventional usage, which may or may not have had their origin in some anatomical features.

For any theory of the first class to be satisfactory it must account for the difference in sensation as well as in force or dexterity; secondly, it must account for the occasional appearance of left-handedness among the right-handed; and also account for the fact that most of those who have their organs transposed—the heart on the right, the liver on the left, etc.—are right-handed.—Scribner.

Cows Attacked by Hungry Birds

The severity of the pangs of hunger among birds, brought about by the recent severe weather, has had a far-reaching effect at Horstington, Somerset. It was noticed that one of a herd of cows had a hole in its back, near the root of the tail, deep enough to receive a large size hen's egg. It was afterwards found that other cows in the herd had also wounds of this kind, which could not be accounted for, and it was subsequently discovered that the mischief was caused by magpies, who were tearing flesh from the animals.

Local News Notes.

H. Theviot has accepted a position in the post-office.

Isaac Smith was down from Staples
the first of the week.

Mrs. Wm. Murray and daughter have been visiting in Detroit.

Mrs. E. W. Kaley, of Hamline, is in the city visiting with relatives for a few days.

City Attorney McClenahan has been confined to his house by illness during the present week.

Miss Sarah Nichols, of Monominee, Wis., has been engaged to teach the Oak Lawn school this summer.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Y. M. C.
A. parlors. All are cordially invited.

The prisoners who were sentenced to Stillwater were taken by Sheriff Spalding to that place this morning.

Mrs. E. O. Parks and family, of Hamline, are spending a few days in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wright.

Mrs. H. J. Spencer and Mrs. D. Mc-Donald gave a coffee to about eighty of their friends on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Spencer.

G. H. Shaver returned to his Dakota farm Tuesday last week. He had two camps for the Northern Mill Co.,
and banked over three million feet of logs.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Howes give a progressive euchre party this evening to their friends at the residence of Mrs. Fannie Mulrine on Eighth street north.

The celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Grand Army, April 6th, will take place in the opera house instead of the Post Hall. Admission free. Everybody is invited. No collection will be taken.

Benjamin F. Allen, of Gull River, has purchased a residence on Fifth avenue west, and will bring his family here to live. He will establish himself in the meat business as soon as a suitable location can be found.—Duluth Tribune.

The Duluth News says in its St. Paul telegraphic item: "Dr. Howes, chief of the Crow Wing band of braves and royal physician to the court of Itasca, has been in town today procuring Koch's lymph for the standing army of that empire."

Services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 10:30. The second sermon of series on Prodigal Son, subject "The Mind's Transition."
Young People's meeting at 7 p. m., led by Miss Winchell. Evening services at 7:30 p. m., subject "Tale of Jericho." All are invited.

On April 15th, "The Sea King" will be presented at the opera house by one of the very strongest companies on the road. This company is under the management of W. J. Gilmore, who handles nothing but first-class companies. "The Sea King" is a spectacular opera, and will be presented by a company composed of nearly 100 people.

James Lampron, of Gull River, accused of selling liquor to Indians, stood a trial and was found guilty.
He was given a sentence of six months in jail, and to pay a fine of $100 and to stand committed until paid. Mr.
Lampron will serve his sentence in Otter Tail county jail. The case against him was very conclusive, and the wonder is that he preferred to go to trial rather than plead guilty.—
Fergus Falls Journal.

At the parish meeting of St. Paul's church, held on Monday evening, the following vestry was elected for the ensuing year: L. P. White, senior warden, and W. F. Spalding, junior warden. Vestrymen: R. M. DeLambert, F. W. Malott, Jno. Lowery, J.
S. Gardner, F. Davis, J. C. Small,
Geo. Forsyth, Geo. N. Day, R. F.
Walters, W. D. McKay. The following delegates to the annual convention, to be held at Faribault in June, were also elected: L. P. White, Sr., W. F.
Spalding, Geo. Forsyth, J. S. Gardner, Alternates: J. C. Small, F. W. Malott, Jno. Lowery, Geo. N. Day.

Manager Alexander is certainly receiving some splendid attractions at the opera house this season, and he should receive better patronage. Lot-ta and Corinne are stars who are rarely seen outside the largest cities, and to secure them for a place like Brainerd is highly complimentary to Mr.
Alexander's ability as a theatrical manager. Such attractions cannot be secured again unless better patronage is extended in the future than has been in the past. Mr. Alexander has booked for the near future companies equally as strong, and we hope a better attendance for these will be secured.

Mrs. G. H. Shaver returned from
N. Y. City last week, where she has been visiting for some time with Prof.
and Mrs. T. R. Congdon.

B. D. and Mrs. Congdon, who have been visiting in St. Paul and Hamline during the winter, returned to their old home in Nelson, Penn., last week.

A change in the time of running trains on the N. P. took place last Sunday, new through coast trains being put on. The change affecting this city most is in making the Morris train connect at Little Falls with No.
4, so that a person can leave Brainerd at 6:45 a. m., and arrive at Minneapolis at 12:05. Nos. 5 and 6 remain unchanged.

The Moorhead News says that A. A.
White has just returned from his western trip after an absence of some time. He purchased 1,000 acres of land in the Flathead valley on behalf of the Great Northern Railroad company, which will become division and shop headquarters for the system.
The town will be called Kalispell (meaning Flathead). It is described as a beautiful site, is surrounded by mountains, iron and coal deposits abound, forests are near and good agricultural land. It is located about 120 miles north of Missoula, and about 60 miles west of the Rockies. The climate is that of the coast, temperate healthful and salubrious. Mr. White talks glowingly of his destiny.

Chief of Police Wm. Barron, of Brainerd, arrived in this city morning with warrants for the women who were arrested on the east bound Northern Pacific train yesterday afternoon as stated in the Times. It appears that in Brainerd inmates of houses of ill-fame are fined each month, but the parties in question endeavored to escape this punishment, as they contemplated a removal to Pipestone. Lizzie Wing, the proprietress, was fined $26.75, and each of the four girls $11.75. This, together with the costs amounted to $100. They spent last night at the county jail, and upon the arrival of the officer this morning, paid their fines and were allowed to go.—St.
Cloud Times.

Joined For Life.

One of the most notable social events of the season was the marriage last evening of Miss Genevieve Paine, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H.
Paine, to Mr. C. Johnson Husted, of Kaukauna, Wis., at the residence of the bride's parents, on 8th street south, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and guests. Exactly at 9 o'clock the wedding party entered the parlor in which the guests were assembled, where they were confronted by the Rev. J. W. Frizzell, of the First Congregational Church, who pronounced the solemn words that made them man and wife. Miss Laura Dobner, of Hamline, Minn., a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and
Mr. J. Q. Matthews as the groom's best man. The bride was attired in a lovely cream-colored tulle silk gown, trimmed with silk lace, with roses and carnations at the corsage, and carried a bouquet of roses in her hand. The bridesmaid also wore a cream silk dress, with natural flowers, while the gentlemen were attired in conventional black. At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations and best wishes of the assembled guests, after which an elegant collation was served.
The bride has resided in this city with her parents since early childhood, and is therefore well known in Brainerd society circles, where she has been a great favorite. She is a highly accomplished, well educated young lady, having graduated from the Brainerd High School in the class of '88, since which time she has been engaged as a teacher in the schools.
The groom is by trade a train dispatcher, and was employed for some time by the N. P. Co. in this city previous to the removal of the office to Staples a year ago. He is a man of fine presence, and is highly respected by those who know him. He is now located at Kaukauna, Wis., for which place the happy couple departed on the early morning train. The many friends of the bride in this city extend their best wishes for life-long happiness in their new relation.

Mr. and Mrs. Husted were the recipient of many costly and beautiful presents, tokens of love and respect of admiring friends.

The Clemenceau Case.

There is a demand among theater goers for something of more dramatic strength and value than the deluge of farce comedy that has spread its self over the country the past two seasons, and it will be admitted that
"The Clemenceau Case" is as far removed from farce comedy as is possible. It is a play of great dramatic interest, adapted from the novel of the same name, French in tone and treatment, and with a well developed and well sustained plot, the interest is keen throughout the action of the piece, and there is not a slow moment in the whole play. The studio scene,
discussion, is merely an incident in the production, the play not depending upon it altogether, it is only one in a series. In the cast are many who were in the original New York production, and Miss Sybil Johnson confines as Iza. This play is one of great strength dramatically, and possesses a strong human interest. It follows the novel of the same name and all the salient incidents are well brought out. It is difficult to discover whether the novel or the play is the better. There has been considerable discussion over the studio scene, the Boston wise men going so far as to stop the performance. Modification has followed and this has been affected without any sacrifice of dramatic interest or value. There is much action and strong emotional passages in this play so the interest does not depend upon any one incident. The company presenting it is, with a few exceptions, the original New York cast, Miss Sybil Johnson continuing as Iza. At the opera house to-morrow (Saturday) evening.

A BATCH OF CRIMINALS.

Eight Men Convicted in the District Court, a Majority Getting Penitentiary Sentences.

The district court which has been in session since the 16th of March, ended yesterday afternoon after during a vast amount of business. The criminal cases which were tried resulted in a conviction of all against whom indictments were found by the grand jury, and were as follows:

James McCloskey, convicted of larceny, and sentenced to two years at hard labor in the state prison at Stillwater.

The evidence in the case showed that McCloskey robbed a man by the name of John Trainor at Bubar's hotel some time during the winter, the sum of money taken being $25.
Trainor went to bed drunk and the prisoner gained access to his room and took the money from his pocket, and when arrested the same amount was found on his person.

Andrew Shook was convicted of larceny in the second degree, and sentenced to serve nine months at hard labor in the penitentiary at Stillwater.

Mr. Shook was running a saw mill in Cass county and cut timber from railroad lands, manufacturing the logs into lumber and selling it. The amount of the larceny was something over $900, and the indictment was for larceny in the first degree, but the jury in considering the case reduced the degree to the second, and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. A motion was made for a new trial by his attorney.

Henry McGraw was convicted of robbery in the second degree and sentenced to serve three years at hard labor in the penitentiary at Stillwater.

Phillip Howard plead guilty to robbery in the third degree and was sentenced to hard labor for two years at the Stillwater penitentiary.

Robert McNaughton plead guilty to robbery in the third degree and was sentenced to the state reformatory at
St. Cloud.

The three men named above were connected in the robbery of a Swede named Nels O. Wing in February.
Wing had come to the city from the woods and had about $21. He fell in with Howard who concocted a scheme to get his money, with the assistance of McGraw and McNaughton. Howard hired him to go into the woods in order to get into his confidence, and from the Last Turn saloon, after taking a few drinks of beer, they started to go to the train, as Wing supposed, but they had hardly left when McGraw jumped onto his back and held him while young McNaughton went through his pockets, according to the evidence, and extracted his money, $20.50. In the case of McGraw, the jury recommended him to the mercy of the court. McGraw and Howard are probably two as tough crooks as have infested the town in some time, the former having been mixed up in several shady affairs, while the latter has ostensibly been gaining a livelihood by playing pianos in saloons and such like. Robert McNaughton, on account of his age, was sent to the reformatory where it is hoped the influences will be for his good.

John Willett, a colored man, plead guilty to attempted rape, and was sentenced to three years in the Stillwater penitentiary.

Willett's attempted crime was committed upon a ten-year-old daughter of Peter Ott in December last, in East Brainerd, the little girl being on an errand at the time the brute met her,
and but for the timely arrival of help the girl would have been subjected to one of the most brutal outrages.

Patrick Murphy plead guilty of larceny and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10, or fifteen days imprisonment in the county jail.

Murphy's crime was that of receiving the mail of a trunk check belonging to another party. He took the check to the baggage room and got the trunk and sold it. As he had laid in jail since last September and plead guilty his sentence was made as light as possible.

Joseph Tift was convicted of the crime of drunkenness under the Scheffer law and sentenced to pay a fine of $10, or 15 days in jail, the case being an appeal from the municipal court.

Among the other cases tried was that of Lucius A. Curtis vs. Della Curtis, which was an action for divorce on the ground of adultery. The jury gave a verdict for the husband. The case has been one of considerable notoriety, especially in the southern portion of the county, as both parties were prominent members of the Advent church.

The case against Henry T. Moers for arson and who was indicted, was
account of the absence of certain witnesses. Mr. Moers was released on bail, the amount being $1,000.

Musical Convention.

A grand musical convention will be organized on Tuesday evening, April 7th, by Prof. R. B. George, with a free concert in the M. E. church.
Prof. George, pupil of Wm. Shakespeare, London, a student of Boston, Paris, Rome and Berlin conservatories has been engaged to instruct the class. He is recommended by competent authorities to be equal to any instructor in America. The cost of instruction in private lessons would cost $2 for each half hour. Books will be loaned members of class with privilege of buying at reduced rates. Class will be organized Tuesday evening, April 7th, at 7:30 o'clock, at the M.
E. church, tuition for fifteen lessons, $1. The convention will close with a grand concert. All interested in music are respectfully urged to unite with the class.

KEMMER.—At his residence in this city, March 29th, 1891, Joseph Kemmer, aged 31 years.

CLARK.—At his residence on Fifth St., on Thursday, April 2, 1891, David Clark, aged 45 years.

Mr. Clark had been ill but a short time. He was well known to nearly everyone in the city, having lived here for several years. The funeral, under the direction of Pap Thomas Post, G. A. R., will take place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at his residence. Deceased leaves a wife and three children to mourn his death.

A Midnight Fire.

The fire bell called attention to a blaze raging in a house of ill-fame on Third street this morning about 1 o'clock. The place is one of two run by Frankie Smith, who seems to have corner on the business, and while the "girls" were at lunch the house took fire and was completely gutted, supposedly the work of a lamp explosion.
The furniture, including a fine piano, was ruined. We understand that the place was fully insured.

Prof. E. K. Cheadle is in Cannon Falls, visiting with friends.

The new state game and fish law, which prohibits the catching of more fish than can be used for food, and it will be a mighty good thing, says the Battle Lake Review. If people are allowed to take hundreds of pounds of fish out of our lakes daily, the law prohibiting the shipping of fish out of the county should be repealed. We hope to see the proposed law placed on our statute, for we are opposed to the wholesale killing of fish and game.
Let the people have all they need during the open season and let them put down a supply for winter, but prohibit them from shipping fish out of the county, feeding them to hogs or leaving them in the boats or on the lake shore to spoil.

Attention Comrades.

The funeral of Comrade David Clark will be held Saturday, April 4, at 3 p. m. All comrades are requested to meet at G. A. R. Hall at 2:30 p. m.

Local News Notes.

H. Thietz has accepted a position in the post-office.

the first of the week.

have been visiting in Detroit.

a few days.

confined to his house by illness during the present week.

Miss Sarah Nichols, of Menominee, Wis., has been engaged to teach the
Oak Lawn school this summer.

afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Y. M. C.
A. parlors. All are cordially invited.

to Stillwater were taken by Sheriff
Spalding to that place this morning.

Mrs. E. O. Parks and family, of
the city with her parents, Mr. and
Mrs. C. P. Wright.

Mrs. H. J. Spencer and Mrs. D. Mc-
noon at the residence of Mrs. Spencer.

G. H. Shaver returned to his Dakota
two camps for the Northern Mill Co.,
logs.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Howes give a progressive enche party this evening to their friends at the residence of
Mrs. Fannie Mulrine on Eighth street
north.

The celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Grand Army, April 6th, will take place in the opera house
instead of the Post Hall. Admission
lection will be taken.

Benjamin F. Allen, of Gull River,
has purchased a residence on Fifth
self in the meat business as soon as a suitable location can be found.—Duluth Tribune.

The Duluth News says in its St.
Paul telegraphic items: "Dr. Howes, chief of the Crow Wing band of

next Sunday morning at 10:30. The second sermon of series on "The
Young People's meeting at 7 p. m.,
led by Miss Winchell. Evening service at 7:30 p. m., subject "Tale of Jericho." All are invited.

be presented at the opera house by
the management of W. J. Gilmore,
nearly 100 people.

James Lampton, of Gull River, accused of selling liquor to Indians,
stood a trial and was found guilty.
to stand committed until paid. Mr.
Lampton will serve his sentence in Otter Tail county jail. The case
Fergus Falls Journal.

warden, and W. P. Spalding, junior
bert, F. W. Malott, Jno. Lowery, J.
S. Gardner, F. Davis, J. C. Small,
Geo. Forsyth, Geo. N. Day, R. F.
Walters, W. D. McKay. The following delegates to the annual council, to be held at Faribault in June, were also elected: L. P. White, Sr., W. P.
Spalding, Geo. Forsyth, J. S. Gardner.
Alternates: J. C. Small, F. W. Mal-
lott, Jno. Lowery, Geo. N. Day.

Manager Alexander is certainly securing some splendid attractions at
ly seen outside the large cities, and to secure them for a place like Brainerd is highly complimentary to Mr.
Alexander's ability as a theatrical
is extended in the future than has
better attendance for these will be secured.

Mrs. G. H. Shaver returned from
N. Y. City last week, where she has been visiting for some time with Prof.
and Mrs. T. R. Congdon.

B. D. and Mrs. Congdon, who have
old home in Nelson, Penn., last week.

A change in the time of running
train connect at Little Falls with No.
at 6:45 a. m., and arrive at Minneapolis at 12:05. Nos. 5 and 6 remain unchanged.

weeks. He purchased 1,000 acres of land in the Flathead valley on behalf
of the Great Northern Railroad company, which will become division and
shop headquarters for the system.

60 miles west of the Rockies. The
talks glowingly of his destiny.

Chief of Police Wm. Barron, of Brainerd, arrived in this city morn-
Northern Pacific train yesterday after-
deavored to escape this punishment,
$100. They spent last night at the
fines and were allowed to go.—St.
Cloud Times.

evening of Miss Genevieve R. Mc-Graw and Mr. McGraw. The bride, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.
H. McGraw, of Hamline, Minn., a daughter of Kaukauna, Wis., on 8th street, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and guests. Ex-
pronounced the solemn vows that made them man and wife. Miss Laura
Mr. J. Q. Matthews as the groom's
gown, trimmed with silk lace, with
cream silk dress, with natural flowers,
while the gentlemen were attired in
conventional black. At the conclusion
of the ceremony the happy couple re-

with her parents since early child-
young lady, having graduated from
of '88, since which time she has been
engaged as a teacher in the schools.
time by the N. P. Co. in this city pre-
friends of the bride in this city extend
ness in their new relation.

Mr. and Mrs. Husted were the re-
of admiring friends.

The Clemenceau Case.

ble. It is a play of great dramatic
in the whole play. The studio scene,
were in the original New York production, and Miss Sybil Johnstone continues as Iza. This play is one of great strength dramatically, and pos-
scene, the Boston view men going so far as to stop the performance. Modification has followed and this has been affected without any sacrifice of dramatic interest or value. There is much action and strong emotional passages in this play so the interest does not depend upon any one in-
is, with a few exceptions, the original New York cast. Miss Sybil Johnstone continues as Iza. At the opera house tomorrow (Saturday) evening.

Penitentiary Sentences.

in session since the 16th of March,
ended yesterday afternoon after dur-
grand jury, and were as follows:

James McClosky, convicted of lar-
water.

that McClosky robbed a man by the name of John Trainor at Buba's
hotel some time during the winter,
the sum of money taken being $25.

Trainor went to bed drunk and the
and took the money from his pocket,
was found on his person.

hard labor in the penitentiary at Stillwater.

Mr. Shook was running a saw mill
for a new trial by his attorney.

labor in the penitentiary at Stillwater.

Phillip Howard pled guilty to
at the Stillwater penitentiary.

Robert McNaughton pled guilty
sentenced to the state reformatory at
St. Cloud.

connected in the robbery of a Swedish named Nole O. Wing in February.
Wing had come to the city from the
with Howard who conceived a scheme
ard and Nole went into the woods in order to get into his confidence, and
to go to the train, as Wing supposed,
evidence, and extracted his money, $20.50. In the case of McGraw, the
of the court. McGraw and Howard
and such like. Robert McNaughton,
fluences will be for his good.

John Willett, a colored man, pled
water penitentiary.

of Peter Ort in December last, in East
errand at the time the brute met her,
one of the most brutal outrages.

Patrick Murphy pled guilty of larceny and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10, or fifteen days imprisonment in the county jail.

through the mail a trunk check belonging to another party. He took
pled guilty his sentence was made as light as possible.

court.

Among the other cases tried was
were prominent members of the Advent church.

The case against Henry T. Mooers
nesses. Mr. Mooers was released on bail, the amount being $1,000.

7th, by Prof. R. B. George, with a free concert in the M. E. church.
Prof. George, pupil of Wm. Shake-
speare, London, a student of Boston,
petent authorities to be equal to any
instruction in class is less than 7 cents for an hour's lesson. The same instruction in private lessons would cost $2 for each half hour. Books will be
of buying at reduced rates. Class
will be organized Tuesday evening,
April 7th, at 7:30 o'clock, at the M.
E. church, tuition for fifteen lessons,
$1. The convention will close with a
grand concert. All interested in
with the class.
